- Festival was discussed.
- City Attorney: Brownfield Assessment is still in process for Sadieville school. The plan is for the school to be transferred to the city in time for the grant, and then it would be free and clear. The vacant lot would then be sold to pay off any outstanding liens on the property.
- Public Safety: Mayor Wagoner made a motion to approve up to $150 to purchase front floor mats for the police Tahoe; Commissioner Stamper seconded the motion; all in favor; motion passed.
- Public Safety: Commissioner Halsey made a motion to approve up to $500 to purchase pepper spray canisters and taser cartridges for the police department; Commissioner Stamper seconded the motion; all in favor; motion passed.
- Public Safety: Commissioner Halsey has been approached by citizens asking about clean up along the railroad banks. That is the property of the railroad, and the city would need permission to do anything.
- Parks & Recreation: Commissioner Stamper presented an option of putting a pop machine at the park for the patrons. This issue was tabled until further discussion and research can take place.

- Parks & Recreation: Mayor Wagoner made a motion to approve $1200 for the purchase of commercial grade outdoor Christmas lights; Commissioner Stamper seconded the motion; all in favor; motion passed.
- Parks & Recreation: Commissioner Stamper made a motion to set trick-or-treat for October 31, 2022, from 6pm-8pm; Commissioner Epperson-Stanley seconded the motion; all in favor; motion passed.
- Parks & Recreation: Commissioner Stamper made a motion to approve $800 for the Halloween event budget; Commissioner Epperson-Stanley seconded the motion; all in favor; motion passed.
- Public Works: Commissioner Epperson-Stanley has been working with Kentucky Utilities regarding power outlets on the power poles on Main Street. Mayor Wagoner suggested she check with the Renaissance Program regarding grants for lighting.
- Public Works: Commissioner Epperson-Stanley has received a bid for demolition of 615 Pike Street for $17,000 that includes demolition, hauling, backfill and sidewalk repairs. Everyone agreed that it needs to be done soon.
- Public Works: The trashed end of Johnson Alley at Main Street was discussed.
- Streets, Trails and Walkways: Commissioner Stanley requested property descriptions from Attorney Obermeyer on the properties off Davis Lane. There was a discussion of the Vine Street project.
- City Clerk Report: The check for $500 from the Kentucky Municipal Clerks Institute scholarship for training for the clerk has been received.
