Those interested are Josh Cornett who lives at 223 Main Street, Mike Mizell who lives at 225 Cunningham, Kim White who lives at 208 Cunningham, and Randy Wilson who lives at 203 Cunningham. According to the Kentucky League of Cities, the best, impartial way to vote is to read each name in alphabetical order and then if a commissioner would like to vote for that individual, they can make a motion. The person with the most votes would receive the open seat. If there is a tie, there will be a second vote with those two names.
- The mayor read Josh Cornett. The mayor read Mike Mizell. The mayor read Kim White. The mayor read Randy Wilson.
- Commissioner Stamper made a motion to vote for Randy Wilson; Commissioner Halsey seconded the motion; roll call vote; motion passes.

Commissioner Halsey	Yes
- Mayor Wagoner made a statement for the record. “There is a comment floating around town that I have something to do with the Board of Adjustments. The mayor nor any of the commissioners have anything to do with any decisions that is put before the Board of Adjustments. The only thing we do is the appointment if there is an opening. There was a statement that said I had nothing to do with it. I have nothing to do with any decision the Board of Adjustment makes. The only thing the city commission does is appoint the position. I don’t know how much clearer that can be. I wanted to state that for the record.”
- Commissioner Epperson-Stanley stated that there might be a leak at Veteran’s Park, and she is currently in talks with the water company and will bring it before the next meeting once it is solved.

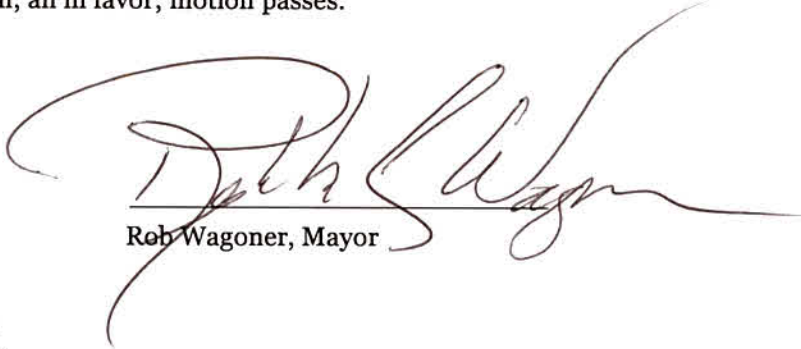

- Commissioner Epperson-Stanley made a motion to increase the Halloween budget from $800 to $1000 due to the amount of the copyright license to show the movie; Commissioner Stamper seconded the motion; all in favor; motion passes.
- Commissioner Halsey asked to hold off on the laptop and camera for now as a solution might have been found.
